A big paint colour delivers great results. Imagine this room in white, it would miss the sumptuous feel of glamour that it now has. For the look, paint a beautiful shade on all walls so the colour encloses the room. Here the deep watermelon called Berger Gabriel's Gift (8062) has been painted to the picture rail, then a pale neutral Berger Sierra Snow (8475) is painted above the rail and over the ceiling to give a calming balance. The woodwork has been matched to Berger Bistro Brown (8645) which gives a strong mocha coloured presence.

INTERIOR DESIGN NOTE

Nature's colours always produce delightful results in paint. Mother nature never chose a bad colour. The bud-like green has a fresh charm, it's called Berger Alligator Alley (7767) and it makes the room feel super fresh. Here the striking, organic green has been balanced by the cleanest white called Berger Soap Suds (OW105), it has been used on all the trim and the ceiling. The timber furniture has been matched to Berger Cranberry Craze (8773) to create a strong feature in the charming room.
